- promoting the cultural safety, participation and empowerment of (1) Aboriginal children (for example, by never questioning an Aboriginal child's self-identification), (2) children with culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds (for example, by having a zero tolerance of discrimination) and (3) of children with a disability (for example, during personal care activities).
- ensuring as far as practicable that adults are not left alone with a child
- reporting any allegations of child abuse to the Club Child Safety Officer, Kellie Haddrick (childsafety@gozebs.com) and/or the Club Committee member, and ensure any allegation to reported to the police or child protection.
- if an allegation of child abuse is made, ensure as quickly as possible that the child(ren) are safe.
- encouraging children to 'have a say' and participate in all relevant organisational activities where possible, especially on issues that are important to them.

Staff and volunteers must not:

- exhibit behaviours with children which may be construed as unnecessarily physical (for example inappropriate sitting on laps).
- put children at risk of abuse (for example, by locking doors).
- do things of a personal nature that a child can do for themselves, such as toileting or changing clothes.
- engage in open discussions of a mature or adult nature in the presence of children (for example, personal social activities).
- use inappropriate language in the presence of children.
- express personal views on cultures, race or sexuality in the presence of children.
- discriminate against any child, including because of culture, race, ethnicity or disability.
- have contact with a child or their family outside of our organisation without our child safety officer’s knowledge and/or consent (for example, no babysitting).
- have any online contact with a child or their family (unless necessary, for example providing families with e-newsletters)
